Art Unit: 3662

1. Receipt is acknowledged of the preliminary amendment filed on 11/9/2001.
2. Claims 1-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 is indefinite in the recitation of "has a notch groove for continuous drainage from the top surface to the outer circumference at least on place circumferentially". This recitation is grammatically incorrect and confusing. Claims 2-9 are indefinite due to their dependency on claim 1. Claim 3 is indefinite is the recitation of "the notch groove", which lacks clear antecedent basis. Claim 4 is indefinite in the recitation of "one of the notch groove". In claim 5, "the vulcanization" lacks clear antecedent basis.

3. Claims 1-9 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.
4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Kodama et al, Ihara et al, Oberle and JP 09144805 show engine mounts.
5. Any inquiry concerning this communication should be directed to Mr. Graham at telephone number 703-308-1113.
